- IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1856, ed which have done so much secure the reputation of this titute, are still adhered to, fording those in need of edical aid, the certainty of ure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so g[illegible] portance to the sick as to now where to find a physician whose skill and humanity ive assurance of proper and [illegible] to treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the [illegible] of those of both s[illegible] ho are suffering or in the [illegible] the invariable success th[illegible] as marked the career of the nstitute in the seventeen year its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the mplaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it is duty to call especial att[illegible] ion to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its in[illegible] ence the very life of its victims; in the treatment [illegible] ure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

DATES TO OCTOBER 5.

New York Underground Railroad.

NEW YORK, Oct 4.—A contract for constructing the underground railroad in New York has been concluded with an English engineer who built the underground railway in London. They expect to enter on the work at an early day. Mr Duncan, who sailed for Liverpool on the steamer Scotia yesterday, took out the contract for the approval of the Board of Directors.

Relations with Spain

CHICAGO, Oct 5.—A Republican's Washington special says it is understood that the status of the Spanish Legation here has been canvassed by the President and Secretary Seward. It has been decided that after the date when our Government received official information that the Spanish monarchy has ceased to exist, its representatives here cannot be officially recognized as representing a sovereign power. It is thought some of them may be succeeded by the Provisional Junta. Seward has been careful not to commit himself against the insurrectionary leaders. It seems that the Queen has made preparations for an occasion like the present by making safe investments in America. It is said that some time ago her agents bought up the whole Germantown water stock.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct 5.—Mr Seward takes an active interest in Spanish affairs. Minister Hale keeps him fully posted. A Tribune's Washington special says Mr Seward will take advantage of the present Spanish difficulty to urge on Congress the purchase of Cuba. It is even said he will take the responsibility to make the purchase before the meeting of Congress, as in the Alaska case.

West Indies

NEW YORK, Oct 5.—Mail advices from Port au Prince of September 12th state that the Government issued two decrees, one, that the only ports open to foreign commerce are Port-au Prince Cape Haytien and Port De Pax; the other decree prescribes the penalties for blockade running. A large amount of counterfeit paper was in circulation. The siege of Gonores was still going on but the cause of the rebellion was in a desperate state and it was thought it would succumb soon.

"Negro Equality" Recommended

NEW YORK, Oct 4.—The Catholic Synod has promulgated a decree at the Plenary Council at Baltimore urging the immediate establishment of schools for colored children in the Southern States and also the establishment for orphans as there is reason to apprehend a large increase of orphaned colored children.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, Oct 4.—George M. Jamison, the well known actor, was run over and instantly killed, at Yonkers, last evening, by an express train on the Hudson river railroad.

LAWRENCE, Kansas, Oct 4.—A remarkable case of petrifaction was discovered recently at Sheridan bend on the Kansas Pacific Railroad. It appears to be the remains of an immense crocodile and measures one hundred and twenty six feet in length. The upper jaw measures seven feet and weighs seventy five pounds.

A letter from the Cherokee nation says the Camanches will openly declare war if the Government don't comply with their demands. The other Indians are all leaving and coming this way. A general break up will probably take place immediately.

CHEYENNE, Oct 4.—Information from Fort Laramie says several hundred Sioux, under "Man afraid-of-his horses" and other chiefs, are now there ready to go on their reservation as soon as transportation is furnished.

The Union Pacific Railroad is finished to Green River, and passenger trains will commence running there next week.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 4.—Rev G. B [illegible]ler, a distinguished Minister of the Lutheran Church and President of the General Council of the Lutheran Church, died here last night.

CHICAGO, Oct 4.—Senator Cole arrived at Council Bluffs yesterday, making the trip from Sacramento in nine days.

BOSTON, Oct 4.—R. H. Dana jr. has consented to accept a nomination by the opponents of General Butler in the Fifth Congressional District. Their Convention is to be held on Monday.

ST LOUIS, Oct 4.—Pierre Chouteau, one of the founders of St. Louis died here last night.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

FLORENCE, Oct 2.—Signor Scorasa, present Consul General at Belgrade has been appointed Diplomatic representative from Italy to the Mexican Republic.

MADRID, Oct 3.—Marshall Serrano accompanied by seven Generals, entered Madrid to-day in triumph. Great preparations were made for his reception. The streets and buildings public and private, were decorated. A large civic and military procession escorted the Generals through the city. The houses and sidewalks and public squares along the route of procession were crowded with citizens who received Serrano and his Generals with enthusiasm. The procession was followed by a parade and review of the National Guard. This was a great and patriotic display and was made the occasion for a striking manifestation of the popular will. The troops carried side by side by their flags banners on which were inscribed, "Down with the Bourbons," "The sovereignty of the People," "Religious Liberty," "Free Education," and other mottoes of similar character. At the termination of the review, Marshal Serrano made a patriotic address to the immense multitude and soldiers, in the course of which he announced that he had united with General Prim in calling Marshall Esperato, Duke De Vittoria, to the head of the State. The formation of a new Cabinet has been completed and is composed of Marshal Serrano, President; Castelo, Minister of Commerce, Torpele Minister of Justice, General Prim, Minister of War, Alaya, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Madoz, Minister of Finance. Manuel De La Concha has been arrested.

PARIS, Oct 4.—Queen Isabella has issued a protest against the revolution. The Paris papers argue that the force used by the rebels to depose the Queen does not injure her rights to the throne, and declares that the acts of a Junta established by violence is not binding on the people.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—It is rumored that a conspiracy to dethrone Abdul Aziz, the reigning Sultan has been discovered at Constantinople. A number of arrests were made, but no further particulars of the affair have been received.

A rumor is current that the success of the revolution in Spain has had the effect to induce France to make some important concessions to Italy. It is known that Prime Minister Moustreux is expected in Paris and the supposition is that he comes to conduct negotiations rendered necessary by the alleged change in the policy of France.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 5.—The steamer Oregonian sailed for Panama at noon to-day and the Colorado will sail tomorrow.

The committee appointed to collect aid for the Peruvian sufferers have everywhere met with a cheerful response. The amount thus far collected is $18,000, of which $10,000 will be remitted to-morrow to the American Consul at Lima.

The Democrats, at the lead of the Young Men's Democratic Club, will have a torchlight procession this evening for the purpose of receiving General Wallace.

I W Raymond, agent of the North American Steamship Company in this city, publishes a card positively denying the truth of the reports that the opposition is to be discontinued and the Company's steamers withdrawn. He says the Company is abundantly able and equally determined to continue running their ships to and from New York via Panama, and will do so as long as they have the approbation of the public.

Political Brevities.

Copperhead papers predict that Gen. Grant will "withdraw" before election. Democratic papers prophesied the same thing when he was before Vicksburg and Richmond—but he didn't.

Gen N B Forrest, who seconded Seymour's nomination, says there are 550,000 K. K. K. s in the South—40,000 in Tennessee. He also says all Union men are marked and if the signal is ever given, there will not be one left alive in Tennessee.

The New York World says a lame sold or has been selling badges in that city with the following effect: Seymour, 454 Grant, 4. The World forgets to mention that he was a Confederate soldier, which explanation leaves no room for astonishment.

The Southern Democrats are determined to take the negro into their political family. In some places they employ cajolery, in other intimidation. Where they can't seduce the negro they force him. They are bound to mix with the blacks, at all hazards.

Every officer in the army who was dismissed for cowardice and disloyalty was a Democrat. Every man who denounced Union soldiers as Lincoln's hirelings was a Democrat. Every man who denounced greenbacks as "Lincoln skins" was a Democrat.

Referring to the Democratic claim that the millions that have been expended in putting down the rebellion have been wasted, the Hartford Post says: "Imagine a pickpocket contemplating a policeman with the mournful remark, 'Ah, this is what we're taxed for—just to keep this fellow in idleness.'"

LETTERS FROM THE CAPITAL

SALEM, Monday Oct 5, 1868.

THE SENATOR FROM LONG TOM

Mr Huston calls my attention to the statement in my letter of Saturday, to the effect that he had said he would not vote for the resolution to censure Senators Williams and Corbett and desires me to make an explanation. The Long Tom Senator is, I must say, one of the fairest and squarest up and down men of his school of politics, now upon the surface in this State, and I have no desire or intention to misrepresent him. He says he did not say to any one that he would not vote for the resolution though he did say he would have been willing to let the matter pass without action and that he did not like the idea of passing it to please Nesmith. He was willing to table it because it would be a sort of "snub" to Nesmith. He says he did not, in speaking of it, allude to Humason in any way. I made my statement upon the information of a Democrat, who expressed surprise upon being told that Huston voted for the resolution, and who assured me that Huston had said he would not vote for it. I do not doubt Mr Huston's word, and am therefore compelled to think my informant misunderstood him as he could have had no intention to misstate him.

IN THE HOUSE.

Mr. Lauden presented a petition for a law levying sufficient tax to support free schools in the State. Referred to the Committee on Education. Mr Chapman, from the committee to whom was referred the petition for amendments to the charter of the city of Portland, reported a bill providing certain amendments. The various officers of the city, from Mayor down, are made elective by the people and subject to removal by the Mayor and Council for various enumerated reasons, among which is "incompetency." This provision will enable the Council and Mayor to get rid of objectionable city officers whenever they like, as they will be the sole judges of what constitutes "incompetency." The bill provides that vacancies shall occur through resignation, removal, change of residence to another ward in the case of a Councilman, absence from the city, etc. The Mayor's office becomes vacant upon an absence of thirty days. Recorder, ten days, Councilman, six consecutive meetings without leave first obtained. Vacancies occasioned by failure to qualify are to be filled by special election. Section 64 is amended so as to cut off claims for extra services by salaried officers. Section 77 is amended so as to provide that the Recorder and Marshals shall not receive fees in case where the city is party and fails to recover. The elective officers feature is a good one, and it will relieve the election of Mayor, Councilmen and Recorder of political combinations which are usually corrupting. Mr Gray introduced a bill providing that Express Companies and banks shall furnish to Assessors of counties, sworn statements of names of depositors and amounts deposited, whenever required. Mr Chapman introduced a resolution which was adopted directing the Committee on Roads and Highways to inquire into the expediency of amending the present laws so as to require County Commissioners to visit the roads in their respective counties frequently, and to take measures for repairs. Mr. Minto introduced a bill to limit the official incomes of Sheriffs and County Clerks—the former to $2,500 and the latter to $2,000 per annum. Where the aggregate of their fees exceed those sums, they are to pay the surplus into the general county fund. The bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee. Mr. Gray introduced a bill to regulate the fees of Secretary of State. Referred to Judiciary Committee. Mr Jackson introduced a bill amending the school laws prescribing that County Commissioners may levy a five mill tax for school purposes, and defining the qualifications of voters at school meetings. It provides that widows and single women who have taxable property in the district may vote in person or by written proxy. Persons who have not paid or been assessed for school tax, cannot vote. Mr Minto introduced a bill providing that officers receiving fees shall furnish a bill of fees and a receipt. Mr Alexander, of Benton, introduced a bill to regulate bridges—makes the sheriffs of counties superintendents of bridges, and makes it their duty to report unsafe bridges to the County Commissioners. Referred to the Committee on Roads and Highways.

The resolution requesting the Governor to correspond with the Governors and Legislatures of Idaho and Montana with a view to the repeal of their laws taxing Oregon property in transit to those Territories, was adopted. It had been adopted in the Senate.

The bill giving the assent of the State to the purchase by the United States of sites for Custom House, Mint, etc., was passed. It only wants the signature of the Governor to become a law.

The bill to create a department of statistics, etc., was referred. The bill creating a Board of Visiting Physicians for Insane Asylum, was lost by a vote of 13 to 24. Col Chapman, who introduced the bill and voted for it, changed over to "nay" before the vote was announced, and then moved a reconsideration, which prevailed and the bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee. There was some discussion, but nothing worth reporting. The bill will scarcely pass unless its friends can tail it on to some other measure and thus get it "toted" through. There was a long talk on the bill requiring soliciting agents to take out license, in which two or three Democrats likened it to a protective tariff—a thing they had opposed from infancy, through long and useful political careers. One member thought it a scheme to compel interior merchants to buy of Portland merchants, and he recoiled with horror from such a measure. Is it not singular that so many "schemes" are lurking about ready to nip the unsuspecting? Every bill, resolution, memorial and motion, is suspected of having a bloody minded scheme in it. Why, one gentleman, the other day avowed his candid belief that there were schemes on foot in relation to railroad matters! Perhaps. We shall see.

IN THE SENATE

The Senate did not convene till 2 P. M. Mr Herman offered a memorial to Congress, which was adopted, praying for the establishment of a mail route from Roseburg to Randolph, in Coos county. Mr Hendershott, from the majority of the committee to whom was referred the credentials of F. C. Sels, submitted a report, containing the usual thing in relation to the election of Senator in 1866; how there was a contest between Dreibilbis and Sterns, how the contest was continued to this session, how Sterns had failed to appear and had sent what he called a resignation of the office, thereby abandoning the contest; how Dreibilbis had a certificate from the county clerk, dated so and so containing the information that Dreibilbis received 657 votes and Sterns 612, how it therefore appeared that Sterns was let in by fraud, how the seat belonged to Dreibilbis, how there was no vacancy at the last election, etc., etc. The most striking feature of the report was its entire lack of originality. It was accompanied by a resolution, which was made the special order for Wednesday at 11 A. M., with leave to Sels to appear and show cause why it should not be adopted. The following is a copy of the resolution:

"Resolved, By the Senate, that there was no vacancy in the office of Senator for Grant county at the last general election, and that the pretended election for Senator in that county in June 1868, was unauthorized by law, and the certificate given by the Clerk of said county to F. C. Sels, on the 26th day of June, 1868, confers upon him no right whatever to hold said office."

Mr Hendershott introduced a bill to repeal the act granting State aid to the Oregon Central Railroad. I am afraid this bill will be suspected of having a "scheme" in it. Mr Stout introduced a bill to prevent the taking of game or fish at certain seasons of the year. The Senate bill to permit the people of Umatilla county to vote on location of county seat was passed.

ABOUT THAT SEYMOUR CANE

I notice that the Herald contains a telegram from Salem announcing with much glorification that the cane at the Cabin [illegible] presented to [illegible] which should get a majority of votes had been awarded to Seymour by 75 majority! The Herald claims this as an "indication." The fact is, neither the cane nor the voting attracted any attention to speak of, nor was there really any contest except on the part of a few Copperheads who conceived the scheme and engineered it through, to give the cane to Seymour. The [illegible] is no more an indication of the political [illegible] at the State Fair than it would have been had the [illegible] been submitted to a Democratic [illegible]

His Reverence Attempts a New Dodge

In the subject of taxing Government bonds the Democratic demagogue finds so much material which he can use for the base purpose of imposing on ignorant credulity and of pandering to unenlightened selfishness that he is extremely loth to give up his advantage. After a long struggle these unprincipled and shameless leaders have been driven from the position which they took some time ago viz That the States have the right and power to tax Government securities and that they ought, in justice to the masses of the people to do it This dogma is now no longer maintained. The people know that no such right rests with the States, and the charlatans of Democracy have been compelled to abandon an argument which, false as it was they plied incessantly for so long a time driven from this position, they are now trying a new dodge on the question of bond taxation Rev Joseph Smith is naturally at the head of this latest attempt in hypocrisy and deception. In his speech at Salem the other night he admitted that the States have not the right nor the power to tax the bonds – though he had often maintained in his speeches that such right and power do belong to them,—but insisted that Congress should empower the States to levy the tax In charity to this reverend gentleman, this spiritual doctor of politics, it may be supposed by some that he knows no better than this Perhaps he does not know that Congress has no power to confer on the States the right to tax the bonds In that case, as a Congressman elect, it might perhaps be as well for him to make himself acquainted to some extent with the history and jurisprudence of the country There are some authorities on this subject which may be cited with advantage We know it is of little use in a community where a Democrat is a constitutional lawyer to quote such an old fogy as Daniel Webster to settle a point of constitutional law, but there may be others than Democrats who will take an interest in Webster's opinions on this subject. On the 28th of May, 1832, in the Senate of the United States, Moore of Alabama offered a bill declaring that the loans and [illegible] of the National Bank in the several States should be made liable to State taxation On this question Webster said

> "It has already been judicially decided that Congress having established a Bank the Constitution of the United States prohibits the States from taxing it. Observe, sir, it is the Constitution not the law which lays this prohibition on the States The restraint is imposed, not by Congress but by a higher authority, the Constitution. Now, sir, I ask how can we relieve the States from this constitutional prohibition? It is true that this prohibition is not imposed in express terms but it results from the general provisions of the Constitution, and has been judicially decided to exist in full force. This is a protection, then, which the Constitution of the United States, by its own force, holds over this institution which Congress has [illegible] necessary to be created in order to carry on the Government. So soon as Congress exercising its own judgment, has chosen to create it, can we throw off from this Government this [illegible] protection? I think it clear we cannot. We cannot repeal the Constitution. We [illegible] say that every power, every branch, every jurisdiction, and every law of this Government shall not have all the force, all the sanction and all the protection which the Constitution gives it"

Here, then, we are to choose between authorities. It is Daniel Webster or Rev Joseph Smith. Webster holds that as the Constitution prohibits the taxation of Government bonds by the States, the States could not tax them after being authorized to do so by [illegible] Smith thinks differently. He [illegible] that the States are forbidden by the Constitution to tax the bonds, and then by a [illegible] clarity of reasoning, by a charming [illegible] sequence of argument, and by a surprising [illegible] of contradiction, he insists that Congress shall confer on the States a grant of power to do an unconstitutional act! But there is still other authority on this subject. The Supreme Court of the United States has met this very question and decided it. Will Rev. Joseph Smith attend to the following from the opinion of the Court in Van Allen vs. The Assessors, 3 Wallace, 585

> "It is said that Congress possesses no power to confer on a State authority to be exercised which has been exclusively delegated to that body by the Constitution, and consequently, that it cannot confer upon a State the sovereign right of taxation, nor a State competent to receive a grant of any such power from Congress. We agree to the [illegible]"

The Court then goes on to argue that [illegible] in general the power of taxation is [illegible] between Congress and the States the rule is subject to qualifications Here is its language

> "The qualifications of the rules are the exclusion of the State from the taxation of the means and instruments employed in the exercise of the functions of the Federal Government"

The power to raise money by issuing bonds as the evid[illegible] of the debt is one of "the [illegible] ns and instruments employed by the Federal Government in the exercise of its functions. The Court says the States are excluded from the taxation of these means and further, that Congress cannot confer on the States the authority to levy any such a tax, and that the States are "incompetent to receive a grant of any such power from Congress." Perhaps Rev Joseph Smith and his fellow demagogues and hypocrites will soon see the point What turn will they take next on the subject of bond taxation?

The Democrats are exulting a great deal [illegible] Seymour received more votes than Grant at the Catholic Fair at Salem last week A correspondent of the Herald innocently remarks "That Seymour had the sympathy of a large majority of Catholics, no one will doubt" Here, then, we find the result entirely accounted for Democrats say that the Methodists are nearly all Republicans in their political sympathies, and no doubt they are. Suppose a Methodist Fair had been held at the same time and place as the Catholic Fair, with a charge of fifty cents for the privilege of voting, the money to go to build a Methodist house of worship, who doubts but Grant would have received four-fifths of the votes cast? Of [illegible] sensible people see that such results as these have no political significance whatever

The Richmond Whig, alarmed at the tone of the speeches delivered by Wade Hampton, Howell Cobb, Ben Hill, Robert Toombs and other unreconstructed rebels, says "It has reached us in a very direct way that Mr Seymour has expressed the opinion that a certain speech of a distinguished Southerner cost the Democratic party of the North 200 000 votes Better not say anything than use language that only exasperates and strengthens our enemies."

Unhappy Spain

A revolution at once almost bloodless and quite complete, like that which has just occurred in Spain, is among the rarest events in history The fatality which has so long followed the Bourbons has fallen upon the reigning dynasty of Spain, but the Queen is more fortunate than some of her house in times past have been, in that she has succeeded in escaping from the hands of her subjects and is spared the humiliation of being their prisoner, or perhaps a severer fate The House of Bourbon has had many princes of great abilities, and but few of great virtues None of them who have ruled in Spain have been particularly celebrated for either They have occupied the Spanish throne, except at short intervals, since the beginning of the eighteenth century, and perhaps the most dissolute of them all is Queen Isabella, who has just been compelled to flee from her oppressed and outraged subjects Under the old Salic law of the Bourbon family the female members were excluded from the throne but Maria Christina, the mother of Isabella procured in 1830 the abolishment of this law and the daughter obtained the throne of the kingdom Her right was contested by Don Carlos, the brother of her deceased father who claimed that the succession of Isabella was illegal, and a civil war of several years duration was the result The government of Isabella was maintained, but the Carlists have not yet yielded their claims, and it is conjectured by many that a Carlist will now be called to the throne

The plot of the revolution whose crisis has just been witnessed, was long ripening The Government of the country has always been illiberal despotic and tyrannical Isabella is a narrow minded and depraved woman and has pursued a course which could lead to no other result than revolution The immediate cause of the general revolt appears to have been the arrest and banishment by the Queen of some of the popular leaders, but this was only an incident which lit into a blaze the general discontent. The real causes lay far deeper, and have been long in operation A policy that ignores all the natural rights of human beings, forbids all independence of life and action, fetters the conscience, crushes out the lights of intellect and enforces whatever it wills at the point of the bayonet, is sure to stimulate and produce revolt A people so dealt with will, after years and perhaps centuries, of endurance, rise spontaneously and as if by concert, to throw off the burden of oppression Thus the people of France in 1789 rose against the Bourbons, though the prince then on the throne was one of the most exemplary of men and the most benignant of monarchs They revolted against old injuries which Louis XVI was not responsible for and which he would gladly have corrected Thus also the people of Spain have now risen against the Bourbons, an unprogressive race,—in an attempt to correct wrongs and injuries of long standing Every reader of history has verified the observation of Macaulay, that the force of a revolution is generally proportioned to the degree of mal-administration which has produced it So the present revolt in Spain the result of long-continued grievances for which redress had been denied, at once gathered such force as to render it irresistible, and it is successful at a blow

A comparison of the course of revolutions in different times and in different countries suggests an important fact which was first enunciated by Burke, but which has, since his time, been abundantly verified by experience This is, that there is a wide difference between popular convulsions which spring from real grievances, and those which arise merely from popular zeal or the incitations of ambitious leaders On this subject Alison remarks that there is a boundary to men's passions when they act from reason, resentment or interest, but none when they are stimulated by imagination or ambition. Remove the grievances complained of, and when men act from the first motives, a great step is taken towards quieting a commotion But the good or bad conduct of a government, the protection men have enjoyed, or the oppression they have suffered under it are of no sort of moment when a faction, proceeding on speculative grounds, is thoroughly heated against its form. These principles appear to be verified, at least in part, by the present revolution in Spain The revolutionists seem to be conducting themselves with a decorum and moderation which in a people of their hot blood could hardly be looked for They have revolted against real oppression, and it may be hoped from their conduct thus far that they will be content with removing the real grievances which they have so long felt The same principles were verified in a very remarkable manner in the late convulsions in our own country. The rebels had no real grievances to complain of, acting from ambition and thoroughly heated against our form of Government, there was no boundary to their passions and no cure for them except in their own utter defeat and subjugation There being nothing of which the rebels could complain, the Government had nothing to concede The true policy therefore was and is to require of them, unconditional submission. When they submit thus, our civil troubles will be at an end

STILL HARPING ON MAINE —The editor of the Herald seems determined not to believe the report of the Republican victory in Maine, and equally determined that his own statements about it shall not be believed He said yesterday (Tuesday) "The public telegraphic report puts the Republican majority in Maine at 15,000, a private dispatch from an ardent partisan estimates the majority at 20,000." The editor knows that the public telegraphic report does not and never has put the majority so low as 15,000, and he knows further, that a week ago the public telegraphic report did state that "returns from all the towns and cities of the State, mostly official, give the following result "Chamberlain, 75,627, Pillsbury, 55,455, aggregate vote, 131,082, Chamberlain's majority, 20,172" Every time the matter has been mentioned in the "public telegraphic report" the majority has been stated at "over 20 000" Early on the morning after the election the operator at Sacramento told the operator here that the Republicans had 15,000 majority in Maine This report, transmitted before anything like full returns could possibly be received, was posted on our bulletin board, and it is the sole source from which the Herald derives authority for its persistent assertions that the "Republican majority in Maine does not exceed 15 000" We have received a score of newspapers by overland mail which confirm the dispatches relative to the election, sent by telegraph Of course the Herald does not intend to tell the truth or expect to be believed in its talk about it

Recent Gold Discoveries

[From the Lewiston Journal, Sept 26]

We have known for some time that gold has been found in paying quantities on Gold creek—that Messrs Capps & Boyd were making $12 to the hand with rockers, but we were not disposed to help in creating an excitement about new diggings unless there had been discoveries made sufficient to warrant us in so doing We will now relate what was told us by expressman Fettis in relation to these new and important discoveries "The first discovery was made on Gold creek, and diggings of sufficient merit found to warrant Messrs Capps & Boyd in constructing a large water ditch, upon which they are now at work The discovery of Gold creek brought to that place many disappointed miners from the Cœur d'Alene excitement, and the result of their labor is the further discovery of Cow Creek—a stream three miles distant from Gold creek and laying between that stream and Pierce city. The diggings on Cow creek are not over eight feet deep the prospects average from the surface to the bed rock is eight cents to the pan Ned Ryan took out of his claim as high as 75 cents to the pan. The gold is coarser than any ever before found in or near Oro Fino The country around Gold and Cow creeks is said to be a better looking placer region than that of Oro Fino Parties continue prospecting and are everywhere meeting with success There are now from forty to fifty men at work They have laid off a new town and named it Parkerville in honor of that whole souled gentleman, J H Parker Esq The Cœur d'Alene excitement has after all been very good—it having resulted in the discovery of this new and important mining camp 'Tis an ill wind that blows nobody good'

[From the Walla Walla Statesman, Oct 2]

Hon D M Drumheller, through from Kootenai in six days, brings the news of the discovery of new and rich mines on a creek distant about twenty five miles from the old Kootenai diggings The discovery had created intense excitement, and miners were deserting their claims and streaming into the new diggings.

The discovery was made in the early part of September by a party of three miners who had been out on a general prospecting tour, and were on their return somewhat discouraged with the result of their expedition On their way out they had noticed indications of gold on the creek already described, and on their return they thought they would give it another examination which resulted in the discovery of the best mines that have yet been found in the Northern country.

The stream in which the gold was found has been named Perry Creek, in honor of one of the discoverers The creek had been prospected a distance of twelve miles and found to pay well the entire distance The three men who made the discovery panned out in five days $225 They had but two pans and were without conveniences for working to advantage They took out as much as $17 to the pan, and in one instance got $18 The gold is coarse and resembles Kootenai dust with the exception that the color is a shade lighter It is estimated to be worth from $18 to $19 to the ounce

Mr Drumheller visited the mines in person and satisfied himself that they are both rich and extensive He has with him some $30 or $40 of the dust which he washed out himself The Gold Commissioner had visited the mines and laid over the claims until the first of June The supply of provisions, &c at Kootenai, is limited and as a consequence those who go there this fall for the purpose of securing claims, should go well provided

WHAT MR SEYMOUR SAID —Back in 1861, when the Confederate Constitution was framed at Montgomery, Mr Seymour said to Judge Charles H Ruggles "Judge, have you read the Confederate (Montgomery) Constitution? * * * I have and it is better than ours (the Federal) Then why not obviate all difficulty by simply adopting that (Confederate) Constitution?"

And this is the man the hollow hearted Democracy present to us to save the Constitution from the care of the men who fought to maintain it against the Montgomery character of treason.

WORTH THE MONEY —An exchange says

It costs the United States $14 000 to educate every cadet who graduates from West Point

Four of the cadets thus educated—Grant Sherman, Sheridan and Thomas—have repaid the Government in services for all that West Point has ever cost.

Rebellion and Democracy Identical.

At a late Democratic ratification meeting at Savannah, Georgia, Henry B Jackson, amongst others was called on and addressed those assembled In the course of his remarks he said

> "I come back to give my heart and voice for what they are worth to the American Democracy Against those principles I have never rebelled They were our principles in 1850, in 1860, in 1861, 1862, 1863, 1864, and 1865 In vindication of them the blood of our people flowed freely throughout the land We have never, never, never abandoned them"

Here is a man who rebelled against the country did all in his power to break up the Union and destroy the Constitution, played the part of a traitor during four terrible years of war and carnage, but who "never, never, never abandoned the principles of the Democratic party never rebelled against them" Does he tell the truth? To be sure he does Every intelligent man who is not blinded by chronic party prejudices knows that what Jackson said at that meeting was true every word of it The rebels were Democrats that is they were members of the party which called itself by that name before secession they helped to elect Buchanan under his wing they prepared war against the Government and still they were Democrats as Democrats they fired upon Sumter, and thus brought on the war and as such they fought Being conquered, and their Confederacy blotted out of existence they now come back as politicians, and proclaim that in all their atrocious doings they never swerved from the principles of the Democratic party "never never never abandoned them"

In an article on the Maine election the New York Times says "It is easy to talk of 'reaction' and of 'change' and for outer revolution but upon the issues of the Democratic platform it will be as easy to summon back the legions that marched to Appomattox under Lee, as to restore to power the Democratic party of the United States. There will no doubt always be a party in opposition,' and issues may arise which may place it in power, but the 'party in opposition' can never triumph so long as it fights the battle of Slavery, Repudiation, and Rebellion' These issues are as dead as the cause of the Stuarts as Girondism, Federalism, or the Tory contests of the Revolution The children of the men who to-day are conspiring with Wade Hampton and Horatio Seymour to restore the rebels to power will be as anxious to forget their fathers votes as the descendants of Tories are now to forget the course of their ancestors in the Revolutionary War"

The New York correspondent of the Sacramento Union writes, Sept 15 "The rural districts are alive for Grant and Colfax, and New York State may be relied upon to roll back a glorious response to the thunders of Maine and Vermont in November Unless Seymour goes out of this city stronger than ever any Democratic candidate went before, his majority will be swallowed up in the popular vote that is rising to overwhelm him All the river towns are ablaze with enthusiasm At Newburg, last night, the whole town was illuminated and a torchlight procession, three miles long, wound like a fiery serpent along the hills overhanging the Hudson

The story that General N B Forrest would address a Democratic ratification meeting at Fort Pillow, and Howell Cobb a Seymour barbecue at Andersonville, proves to be untrue Reasoning upon probabilities, the public were disposed to believe these announcements

IT IS AN INVARIABLE LAW OF NATURE, that every human being shall do those acts which he thinks will secure good to him, and that he shall avoid those acts which may occasion a loss to him or the family he is a member of In conformity with that law it is the duty of every person to purchase of Kohn & Fishel all the goods they may be in need of The fair sex who certainly are always most happy to comply with all things beneficial to themselves and families, should not fail to examine the fine and extensive stock of Kohn & Fishel and they will confess their stock of Dry Goods to be of superior quality and at figures below other houses Men more or less calculating than our fair ladies should be reminded that Kohn & Fishel, indeed are the leaders of fashion the lowest in price, and no man should wear [illegible] unless they are purchased at Kohn & Fishel's No 91 Front street

Farmers of Oregon!

CASTONS'S X-L-SIOR

BROAD-CAST GRAIN-SOWER.

THIS VALUABLE LABOR SAVING MACHINE, which has already been adopted in nearly every Agricultural county in the State of California and in every county where it has been presented, has been brought to Portland by

who holds the exclusive right to the same for the State of Oregon and is now ready to accommodate the farmers of this state with machines, and to sell county rights to manufacture the same

This machine saves the entire cost and labor of sowing a field excepting the cost of a machine the same team being used for sowing and harrowing as is used for harrowing alone, the farmer or his boy riding and driving his team, instead of walking and carrying his heavy sack, and then walking and dragging his grain in

The inventor of this valuable aid to farmers is a man of large experience in seeding machines, and has happily succeeded in this invention in producing a machine which, while it carries the farmer as if on a sulky, sows wheat, barley, oats and peas with greater regularity than the same can be sown by hand, and at the same time the harrow attached to it, immediately behind, covers the grain and the labor is done Any intelligent farmer who has ever carried a sack and sowed grain will readily see that the X-L-SIOR Grain Sower will save its entire cost in labor alone—to say nothing of its saving in seed—in sowing comparatively but few acres; and we have placed an improper estimate upon the enterprise of our Oregon farmers if this machine is not generally adopted in this State as it has already been in California, and where the farmers write to the inventors respecting it after this manner

LINCOLN (Placer Co) Sept 5, '68
MR H A GASTON—Dear Sir I have two complete machines (X-L-SIOR) which I challenge the State to beat for sowing grain I have put as many fingers in the shaft as you directed but I do not think my machines to sow any better than they do I have sowed and gauged them perfectly
T C PURINGTON

By addressing or calling upon Mr Brusie at C Hopkins, corner of Front and Morrison streets, in this city, machines or County Rights to manufacture and sell the machines can be purchased at reasonable rates.

DRY, DRY.—During the past four or six weeks a great portion of the freighting from to and from this city has been done by teams, as the low stage of Water in the Willamette has not permitted the usual amount of river navigation. Yesterday our four-horse teams were in from the country—some of them from the southern part of the valley, mostly bringing grain and carrying away general merchandise. Many of the country merchants are replenishing their stocks for the fall trade, and dealers here are driving a good business filling orders from the interior. But we expect soon to see a line of rain ... up the Willamette valley, and then neither high water nor low ... will prevent the iron horse from making his rapid flight over our rich country bearing the abundant products of a ... soil to a large and paying market. The fame of the celebrated PLANTATION BITTERS has no parallel in the history of Medicine. The thousands upon thousands of bottles that are made and sold daily is but proof positive of their wonderful virtues. Thousands of certificates can be produced showing their efficacy and certainty of the cures which they effect, and the Medical Fraternity, usually so jealous of anything which causes persons to think and act for themselves, are compelled to acknowledge the efficacy and wonderful virtues, and prescribe them for those who seek their advice. They are sold by all of our druggists.

SPECTACLES AND EYE GLASSES.—G. Frankel, the practical and scientific optician of San Francisco, is in Portland and can be seen at Mr. Put Smith's office, 90 Front street, for a few days, for the purpose of supplying those that require assistance to their eyes with his celebrated Russian Pebble Spectacles and Eye-glasses. G. VENARD,

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 635 AND 637 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of ... manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

Each package bears the signature of G. VENARD.

The Farewell

Sweet were the days we so spent together,
Sad was the hour of our parting be,
Through the broad meadows in [illegible] weather
Pleasant the path that is waiting for thee
In the red west where the sun is sinking,
Deep through the meadows lies my way
And I must onward with a spirit of thinking
Thou knowest all that my heart would say

What shall I give thee for farewell token
How shall I speak to thee with the [illegible] are
Think of the words that we have spoken
Take them for sorrow and lift them to prayer
Oh be thou wise when life is casting
Would who thee tinge will with thee to stay
Keep in thy soul the tenderest blessing
Thou knowest all that my heart would say

Oft o er my soul will a sudden yearning
Bring back the days we are leaving behind
Bring me thy footstep no longer returning
Bring me thy greeting so gay and so kind!
How shall I bless thee? No longer beside thee
I can but love thee, and leave thee, and pray
Yet will God love thee and keep thee and guide thee—
Thou knowest all that my heart would say

Strange Conduct of Queen Victoria

The Queen of England has given great offense here Her wanton disregard of etiquette (which is almost the only virtue to be found in courts) is unpardonable The French Court humored her whims as if she had been a spoilt child All the customary forms insisted on (and on which the French lay a good deal of stress) whenever any foreign vessel of war or state enters the [illegible] instead of a navy yard were waived The state visit of officials were dispensed with The Emperor sent his own [illegible] Charles to arrange everything that the Queen might be as comfortable as possible As the Western Railways Imperial train had no sleeping cars, that of the Eastern Railway was sent down to Cherbourg The moment her yacht anchored, a telegram was put in her hands it was dated Plombieres and was from the French Emperor, bidding her welcome to France and offering her his best wishes With her characteristic selfishness and indifference to others wishes she ordered the curtains of her carriage to be drawn as close as possible and in this way they remained until Lord Lyons appeared at the door in the Paris railway station She had scarcely been ushered into her rooms at the English Embassy than she waived everybody out of it. She remained by herself until breakfast was served No persons were admitted to the breakfast table except her children. The moment breakfast was over she went—still by herself—into the embassy's garden Here she sat under a tree reading one of Prince Albert's favorite authors until the Empress was expected She made no change in her attire She received the Empress in the traveling dress she had worn all through the night As soon as the Empress outrider was seen the Queen went to the porch of the embassy to greet her Their suites were left in one drawing room and they went to the state drawing room next the throne room where they remained in conversation half an hour In the course of this conversation the Queen said to the Empress "Use your gracious influence to the Emperor, I ask, to prevent a war which tears children from mothers" After the Empress withdrew, the Queen retreated to the garden and took up her book Consternation reigned in the embassy Was not the Queen going to return the Empress' visit? After waiting three quarters of an hour, Lord Lyons went to the Queen and reminded her that the Empress was expecting her visit The Queen replied, the Empress could not expect her visit, she had seen how ill she [illegible] Lord Lyons reminded the Queen it had been agreed before her arrival the Empress should pay the first visit and that the Queen would immediately return it The Queen replied she was entirely too ill to go anywhere and, it was absolutely impossible for her to visit the Empress, it had already tasked her power to the utmost to receive the Empress' visit. The Queen got up, quitted the garden went to her room and there remained until dinner time Meantime the Empress and her suite waited impatiently at the Palace of the Elysee for the Queen to make her appearance The Empress, to give as little trouble as possible to the Queen, had considerately made the Elysee her residence for the day The Elysee is not thirty yards from the English Embassy. After waiting three hours the Empress [illegible] and returned to Fontainebleau Lord Lyons is said to be extremely mortified by this incident Well he may be Dinner was served the Queen at 6 o clock She allowed none but her family to be present Lord Lyons was invited to the royal table neither at breakfast nor at dinner—a want of courtesy and a breach of etiquette without precedent. After dinner the Queen left for Switzerland.—Cor. Boston Gazette

Brick Pomeroy's Failure in New York

[New York Correspondence of the Troy Times.]

Mr Pomeroy's course has been too brief to permit final [illegible], but so far as it has gone it has been [illegible]. He is of no more account here than a bantam chicken would be in a cock fight, and as a matter of course, he must sooner or later [illegible] out. His premises are of a con[illegible] character. He has hired a room in the [illegible], about large enough for a lottery office, which indeed it resembles. A small shelf also [illegible] as the bar of a country tavern [illegible] for the [illegible]tional sale of papers, and in the rear of this, a seven by nine apartment, lit by gas, is the "publisher." In the corner of a dark [illegible] enclosure is the "private," and if this be the "sanctum," we pity its occupants In the front swings a vermilion sign bearing the [illegible] "red hot" We think that the "organ" is [illegible] off so rapidly that in a short time it may be changed to "ice cold" What has annoyed Pomeroy more than anything else is, that his appearance here has excited no attention He had expected that the advent of the famous Brick Pomeroy would create a new sensation, but such is not the case, and not a single phenomenon has marked the important event The press gave the matter less space than that claimed by a larceny or street fight. We think, however, that the [illegible] pursued by the World is highly reprehensible. Instead of welcoming a tried ally, whose pen was the boast of Western Democracy it gave him the cold shoulder and did not honor him with even a notice Shame on such conduct! Is this your Democratic brotherhood? Brick felt this keenly. His ambition has chafed until his soul has been relieved by his favorite ejaculation At last a notice came which proved that he was not a mere nonentity Brick made a speech at the meeting of the Democratic Union Club, and the Herald reported it. Any one could understand the reason of this. It was not because the speech was worth noticing, for it was mere buncombe and bombast, but merely to annoy the World—the World and the Herald being mortal foes It would vex the World to see any notice taken of the new sheet, and on this hint the Herald spake Brick was intensely delighted and showed his gratitude by calling the Herald a live sheet

GENERAL BUTLER AND THE "SPOONS" General Butler has called down upon his head an enormous load of rebel hos[illegible] probably because of three facts in his career which unlike the insinuations relative to "spoons" and stealing, can be easily substantiated

1 He hanged a rebel As men [illegible] opponents of capital punishment we disapprove this portion of his career

2. He compelled the "ladies" of New Orleans to treat our soldiers with respect As champions of gallantry and true politeness between the sexes, we see no objection to this

3. He collected from the rebels, while in New Orleans by systematic assessments, the money with which he supported, fed clothed and paid his army and the navy attached to his force, and with which he paid the expenses of the city government of New Orleans including his measures for cleansing and disinfecting that city and providing it a most efficient police, and after disbursing all these expenses he paid over to the Treasury of the United States a net surplus of over eleven millions of dollars Secretary Chase remarked that if all our Generals were like Butler, he could not only carry on the war without greenbacks, but without gold There were Generals who gave no trouble to the enemy and a great deal of trouble to the Secretary of the Treasury Their war was on the Treasury and the pockets of loyal men, not on the rebels Butler, however gave no trouble to the Secretary of the Treasury and made the rebels walk in that straight, chaste and elegant manner for which the Spanish are so widely celebrated This suffices to account for the popularity among rebels and Copperheads of those Generals who nearly bankrupted our Treasury, and a popularity of General Butler among the same classes — N Y Tribune

WHICH IS RIGHT The strategists of the World say General Grant is a soldier destitute of ideas and incapable of [illegible]

Lieutenant General Sherman in his address before the army of Tennessee last November says "After a whole year of toil and battle varied in adventure that would fill a volume, that renowned fortress (Vicksburg) succumbed at last to the army and navy, led by two heroes that have no superiors in any country, and both of whom still live to reap the reward of their labors—Grant and Porter"

EXTINGUISHER PORTABLE SELF-ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered

The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows

Every fire begins on a small scale and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance) no means are ready at hand

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement

It is always ready for use, though standing unused for years

It puts out Fire instantly

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman

It is portable and as easily handled as a bucket of water

It possesses within itself the power of a fire engine and as effective as a Steam Engine

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene Tar Naphtaline and combustible materials now in common use

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhoea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases of [illegible] years standing) and Ulcerated Leg successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system [illegible] that pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and [illegible] broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Yet parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible dreadful maladies see that they are cared for and cured before it is too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days bringing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Better to be careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect, loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms, length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are blacksmiths stone cutters newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not decrive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patients letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
